Continuing Education Seminar

The Indiana University School of Optometry along with Dr. Norman D. Radtke, Director, Retina Vitreous Resource Center, in Louisville Kentucky will be conducting a three hour seminar on April 7, 2013.

The seminar has COPE approval and count as 6 credit hours of CE training for attendees. The cost of this seminar is $180. The itinerary for the seminar is below:

1. Fundus Autofluorescence Imaging (Hour 1)
   a. Stargardt’s Disease
   b. Hydroxychloroquine Toxicity
   c. Retinitis Pigmentosa
   d. Best Vitelliform Macular Dystrophy
   e. Dominantly Inherited Patter Dystrophy
   f. Cone and Cone-rod Dystrophy
   g. Choroideremia
   h. Age-related Macular Degeneration Geographic Atrophy

2. Emerging Development in Ocular Imagery
   a. Commercially Available OCT Devices
   b. Most Commonly Used OCT Instruments
      i. Stratus
      ii. Cirrus
      iii. Heidelberg

3. Clinical Application of OCT in Analyzing Retinal Disorders
   a. Interpretation of OCT Examination in:
      i. Macular Degeneration
      ii. Diabetic Retinopathy
      iii. Plaquenil Toxicity
      iv. Central Serous Retinopathy
      v. Optic Nerve Head Drusen

Location:
Norton Audubon Hospital, One Audubon Plaza Drive, Louisville, KY 40217
In the Community Room on Lower Level Two of the Hospital Capacity: 60